

Athill Range CABBAGES & ROSES

After a lunch with a divine lady named Diana Athill, the perplexing task of naming our latest collection was solved. Her name, her demeanour, her elegance and wit, her fine head of coiffed hair, everything about her stated English lady. Born in 1917, she has worked as a literary editor with some of the most important writers of the 20th century, she is a novelist and raconteur and is completely fascinating.

In essence this collection is brim full of vintage English charm and the name Athill seemed so fitting. My favourite ditsy prints, with just the right amount of colour, beautifully adapted by Moda divided into tiny, medium and larger scale prints. It will be difficult to select a favourite and hopefully, I won't be in the position of having to choose just one. We hope you embrace our collection in the same spirit as our last collection - for which we thank you. It has been a pleasure creating it.
