Sunday Supper

Sweetwater

There are so many things we think of when we hear the word "Sunday". I'm sure it's different for everyone but for us, we think of rest, relaxation, family, church, and maybe a little football in the fall.

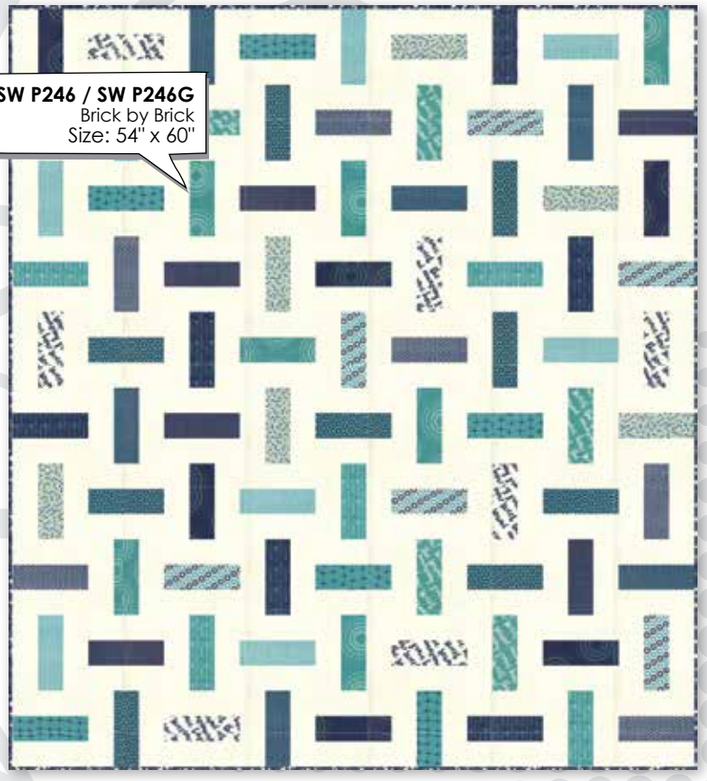

When I was growing up, Sunday also meant the best meal of the week. It was always after church, and it was usually roast beef and mashed potatoes. That memory inspired this collection - that and our love of blue dishes. So many of the designs in this collection were inspired by the pretty blue china plates I remember. Even though we think the yellow and green really bring the collection to life, we can't wait to design and create all blue quilts with the pieces in this line.

Whatever Sunday means to you, we hope this collection will bring back memories, and inspire new traditions with your family.
